attendance. No major administrative problems are anticipated in the handling of this group. It is the smallest number of employees that we have ever enrolled in the seminar, perhaps, because of our present policy of having the sponsoring component bear all the costs. NEA indicated that they had no special interest in the program.

- have tackled the problem of computing, by specific item, the dollar costs of external training requirements projected by Headquarters components for FY 1960. This exercise has become more manageable with respect to language training now that has given us a working estimate of the extent to which overall language training requirements for FY 1960 might be met through LAS facilities.
- 17. Standards Branch has prepared its quarterly report showing formal courses to be offered by components other than OTR during the April June 1959 period. This schedule reveals that, exclusive of training conducted by TSS and OC:
  - a. Twelve offices will conduct 19 different formal courses (4 courses by three DD/I offices, two courses by two DD/P components, eleven by five DD/S offices, and two courses by the Cable Secretariat).
  - b. In length the course offerings range from two hours to 5 1/2 months.
  - c. Nine of the courses are offered on a full-time basis.
  - d. Fifteen of the courses are open to employees outside the sponsoring component.
    - e. Two courses provide foreign language training.
